DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain.

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

We are entering a time where people hate everyone in general. The main reasons why certain immigration bans are popping up is because of terrorist attacks and overuse of drug smuggling. In earlier year the amount of drugs smuggled were in the low hundreds, over the years those hundreds have grown into thousands, millions. Trump wants to stop this, because the more drugs come in, the more likely people will want to buy and smoke them, this method (pun not intended) then gives the seller more money to import drugs. This is why Trump wants to stop this, he wants background checks on everyone, because honestly in this world you can trust nobody, not even yourself, this is why we need background checks before people enter America, so we don't have more drug salesmen, or terrorists attacking us. No more than about last week Quebec, Canada was attacked by terrorists, no one knows which terrorist group attacked though, people are starting to create suspicion that it was either ISIS, remnants of Bin-Laden's group, or other groups.

When the world comes to truth everyone hides it, when the world comes to truth everyone runs from it, when the world comes to truth different people get hurt. Donald Trump has said truth about what this country is doing, and what is happening to it as well. When he speaks truth, that's when people split up into groups of twos, threes and fours. Like a group project, there's going to be those who: lie and sugarcoat, side with truth, those who can't speak for themselves, and the ones who want the opposing candidate. Not everyone can be happy all at once. If Clinton or Sanders were elected, no one would be happy, the world needs to realize that regardless of the efforts everyone makes, there's going to be that one person who won't be happy, countries are against each other, secretly, NATO can't help us, they know it, if one country leader makes a decision, other leaders backfire and attack. This world will never be happy at once, everyone needs to learn that.
